Benefits of MACA Affiliate Membership

MACA has over 100 members -- firms that include many of the purchasers of the products and services your company provides. For the stated annual dues, your firm can become an Affiliate Member to this well-established organization.

Some of the benefits your company will receive include:

- An opportunity to attend meetings, which are likewise attended by Principals/Decision Makers from many of our member companies
 - Your company listing on the MACA web page as a MACA Affiliate Member with your logo (Affiliate only) hyperlinked to your company web site.
 - Ability to obtain a list of member firm contacts
 - Networking opportunities with our members -- those same firms that utilize your products and services.
- * Logo placement in each eBlast sent to Members throughout the year. Your logo will be hyperlinked back to your company page.

We urge you to take advantage of this exclusive invitation to be considered a preferred supplier to over 100 businesses located in Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and the District of Columbia that could directly impact your sales.

For more information, visit our website's Join page, or telephone Rose Jeffries, Executive Director by dialing (717) 730-9745.
